

2nd year either / or

The Bachelor (Hons) in Fashion Management

International careers in fashion from the buyer to the international product manager. The programme springs from partnerships with several UK universities. Of course continuing with a 2nd year in U.K. assures a perfect understanding and use of the English language both practically and professionally. It also prepares a world wide recognised University degree and numerous opportunities to find work.

The D.U “ Fashion, Luxury Products & Art of Living ” programme

University diploma (Bac+4, equivalent to Master 1) with the possibility of a “contrat de professionalisation” combining a work contract and part time training. Mod'Art International and Perpignan and Toulouse Universities work together on this unique programme dealing with the specificities in European Fashion. The specialised academic modules are complemented with seminars and workshops throughout worldwide Fashion Capitals (France, England, Spain, Italy, USA, Japan, China...). Students are actively involved through an internship with a company throughout this unique programme and must prepare a short written ‘thesis’ on a chosen Fashion subject presented orally in front of a jury of professionals and teaching staff.
